Perez has extensive experience in information technology and corporate digital strategy as the Executive Vice President and Chief Information Officer for Salesforce. Prior to joining Salesforce in 2022, he was CIO and Engineering Officer for UPS and a member of the Executive Leadership Team. Perez led the company's adoption of new technologies including AI, virtual assistants, and virtual reality solutions for driver training. He also was responsible for all technology, including operations, airline, automation, sortation, and customer and back-office systems.

"Juan is a respected technology leader with extensive experience driving digital transformations for Fortune 500 companies," said Wabtec President and CEO Rafael Santana. "As we continue to advance our digital solutions, his expertise in leveraging cutting-edge performance technologies across operations, engineering, and supply chain will be instrumental in strengthening our competitive edge and delivering greater value to our customers."

Perez is a senior member of the Institute of Industrial Engineers and serves as a program evaluator for the Accreditation Board of Engineering and Technology. He also serves on the board of the Hershey Company and the advisory boards for the School of Industrial and Systems Engineering at the University of Southern California and the School of Business at Georgia Tech.
