Vande Steeg, former president and chief operating officer of Parker Hannifin Corporation, has been appointed to Wabtec's Board of Directors. Vande Steeg, 64, replaces Kim G. Davis, who has resigned after serving 10 years as a Wabtec director. Vande Steeg will serve as a member of the class of directors whose term expires at Wabtec's 2009 annual meeting, at which time he will stand for election.

"Nick will be a valuable contributor to Wabtec's board and an asset to our management team," said William E. Kassling, Wabtec's chairman. "His strong background in operations management, including leadership of Parker's lean initiatives, plus his extensive experience with acquisitions will be important as we execute Wabtec's growth strategies."

"Kim has always represented our shareholders in a diligent manner," Kassling said. "We thank him for his many years of dedicated service and valuable contributions, especially his willingness to continuing serving on the board since 2003."
