Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Stéphane Rambaud-Measson resigned as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Westinghouse Air Brake Technologies Corporation (“Wabtec”) in order to pursue other interests. He also resigned from the Wabtec Board of Directors. The resignations are effective February 12, 2019 (the “Separation Date”).

On February 13, 2019, Mr. Rambaud-Measson and Wabtec entered into a Separation Agreement (the “Separation Agreement”) in connection with his resignation, effective as of the Separation Date. The Separation Agreement provides Mr. Rambaud-Measson with additional benefits greater than what he would otherwise be entitled to receive in connection with the end of his employment as consideration for his agreement to comply with certain restrictive covenants. Pursuant to the terms of the Separation Agreement, Wabtec will provide Mr. Rambaud-Measson the following:

- a lump-sum cash payment of $3,600,000 to satisfy severance requirements;
- eligibility to receive a pro-rated annual bonus for calendar year 2019 based on the number of days worked from January 1, 2019 through the Separation Date and Wabtec’s actual performance;
- eligibility to receive a pro-rated award related to the performance units previously granted to Mr. Rambaud-Measson based on Wabtec’s actual performance during the applicable performance period;
- a lump-sum cash amount equal to the fair market value as of May 1, 2019 of 35,183 restricted stock units previously granted to Mr. Rambaud-Measson under Wabtec’s 2011 Stock Incentive Plan;
- tax planning advice and tax return preparation services from Deloitte for calendar years 2018, 2019 and 2020;
- reimbursement for relocation expenses in connection with Mr. Rambaud-Measson’s relocation to Germany and other related reimbursements; and
- a lump-sum cash payment of 270,000 Euros to satisfy certain French pension and unemployment insurance requirements.

Mr. Rambaud-Measson also has the right to sell certain de minimis subsidiary stock to Wabtec for a specified amount. In addition to the Separation Agreement, Wabtec and Mr. Rambaud-Measson entered into a Consulting Agreement, dated as of February 12, 2019 (the “Consulting Agreement”), pursuant to which Mr. Rambaud-Measson will receive a fee of $16,500 per month for providing consulting services to Wabtec through February 11, 2020 and be obligated to comply with certain non-competition, non-solicitation and other restrictive covenants during the same term.

The payments listed above to which Mr. Rambaud-Measson is entitled are in full satisfaction of all payment obligations of Wabtec and certain of its subsidiaries. In connection with the Separation Agreement, Mr. Rambaud-Measson and Wabtec agreed to mutual non-disparagement obligations and executed a mutual release of claims relating to his employment, subject to certain exceptions to Wabtec’s release as specified in the Separation Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Separation Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Separation Agreement, including as exhibits thereto the release of claims, a list of Mr. Rambaud-Measson’s severance benefits and the Consulting Agreement, a copy of which will be filed as an exhibit to Wabtec’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ending March 31, 2019.
