Section 4 – Matters Related to Accountants and Financial Statements

Item 4.01. Changes in Registrant’s Certifying Accountants.

On June 9, 2005, the Westinghouse Air Brake Technologies Corporation Savings Plan (the “Plan”) changed its auditors for year-end 2004. The Westinghouse Air Brake Technologies Corporation Pension Committee approved the dismissal of Ernst & Young LLP (“Ernst & Young”) as the independent public accountants for the Plan.

Ernst & Young’s audit reports on the Plan’s financial statements for each of the past two fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002 did not contain any adverse opinions or disclaimers of opinion, nor were such reports qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

During the two most recent fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002, and through June 9, 2005, there were no disagreements with Ernst & Young on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure which, if not resolved to Ernst & Young’s satisfaction would have caused them to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with the audit reports of the Plan’s financial statements for such years. During the two most recent fiscal years ended December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2002, and through June 9, 2005, there were no reportable events as described under Item 304(a) (1) (v) of Regulation S-K.

We provided Ernst & Young with a copy of the foregoing disclosures and requested from them a letter indicating whether they agree with these disclosures. A copy of their letter dated June 29, 2005, is attached as Exhibit 16.

The Westinghouse Air Brake Technologies Corporation Pension Committee appointed Freed Maxick & Battaglia, PC as the independent public accountants for the Plan for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004. Prior to its appointment as independent accountants, Freed Maxick & Battaglia, PC had not been consulted by the registrant on any of the matters referenced in Regulation S-K, Item 304(a)(2).
