Item 8.01. Other Events.

Westinghouse Air Brake Technologies Corporation (the “Company”) detected a cyber security incident, which impacted the Company’s network, on June 26, 2022. The Company promptly activated incident response protocols, which included shutting down certain systems, commenced an investigation of the incident, which is ongoing, and notified law enforcement authorities.

At this time the Company does not believe the incident will have a material impact on the Company.

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This communication contains “forward-looking” statements as that term is defined in securities laws. Forward-looking statements are sometimes identified by words or expressions, such as “believe” and “will.” Forward-looking statements are based upon current expectations and as such are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those indicated or anticipated by such forward-looking statements. The inclusion of such statements should not be regarded as a representation that such plans, estimates or expectations will be achieved.

The risks and uncertainties in connection with such forward-looking statements related to the cybersecurity incident include, but are not limited to, the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances relating to the scope of the incident; the nature, type and amount of data accessed; the risk of any data loss; the compromise or improper use of sensitive, proprietary, confidential financial or personal data or information resulting in negative consequences such as fines, penalties, or loss of reputation, competitiveness or customers; any future operational interruptions; the Company’s ability to assess and remedy the incident; the Company’s steps to minimize unauthorized access into its information systems, including the timing and effectiveness of adding enhanced security features and monitoring procedures; incremental expenses associated with the Company’s on-going assessment of the incident and remedial actions taken in response to the incident; the nature and scope of any claims, litigation or regulatory proceedings that may result from the incident; the availability of insurance coverage; other legal, reputational and financial risks resulting from this or other cybersecurity incidents and the potential impact of this incident on our revenues, operating expenses, and operating results.

The foregoing list of important risk factors is not exclusive. Any forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of this communication. The Company does not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information or development, future events or otherwise, except as required by law. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on any of these forward-looking statements.

SIGNATURE

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the Company has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.
