Wabtec Appoints Byron Foster to Board of Directors

PITTSBURGH, July 8, 2021 — Wabtec Corporation (NYSE: WAB) announced today the appointment of Byron Foster to its Board of Directors, effective immediately.

Foster, 52, is President of the Light Vehicle Drive Systems business of Dana Incorporated, a Fortune 500 global leader in the design and manufacturing of propulsion and energy-management solutions for the mobility industry. Prior to this role, Foster was Senior Vice President and Chief Commercial, Marketing and Communications Officer for Dana. Throughout his 30-year career, Foster also held senior executive commercial and operational roles at Johnson Controls, Inc., and Adient, where he was a driving force behind the respective company's global growth and product portfolio expansion.

"Byron is a respected leader in the transportation industry, who will bring tremendous experience to the Board having led complex global industrial businesses focused on growth, profitability and technical innovation in clean energy solutions," said Wabtec Chairman Al Neupaver. "With his management background in operations, engineering, marketing, and supply chain, Byron will help further strengthen Wabtec's leadership across the rail sector."
